9 FARRINGTON: Mmm-hmm.

10 HILL: Nobody's moving over there in April. Or in 11 May. When school is about to go out. So. He ain't
12 going nowhere. He ain't got no choice. Unless he 13 wants to just lose a thousand dollars a month for the 14 next two or three months. No, I, I'm thinking that we 15 can, we can work, work through. Keep working through 16 BRIAN's deal. Uh, get a little, a little, uh.

17 FARRINGTON: So, we, we've done pretty well. I mean,
18 we have. We just, we had to do things, other things
19 than what we planned with it. But, we've done pretty 20 well.

21 HILL: Na, I mean, we can go.

22 FARRINGTON: I mean, we, we did, we put, put the five
23 on the car, and we put the, the what? Well, if, is, is.

24 HILL: (UI).

25 FARRINGTON: We could be 65 hundred strong right now.

1 Which we, that could be stashed away somewhere, and,
2 and uh, doing something, or just preparing to, or,
3 you know, saving it or something.

4 HILL: No, we, we're, we're, we're gonna run the 5 campaign. We'll raise some money there. We'll get
6 some pay out of that. We'll work it out.

7 FARRINGTON: I'm just saying. We, we've been doing
8 pretty, we've been doing pretty good. You don't think so?

9 HILL: Oh, no. No, I, I think, I think what we've 10 done is either things we needed to do, or things that, uh,
11 that, uh, have been beneficial to us. No, it's all good.

12 FARRINGTON: Yeah.

13 HILL: I, I just think that, uh, uh, I mean, if I'd 14 had my druthers, I would have more, have had some 15 income generated, uh, through the fund, through our 16 campaign fundraisers and, but, but that's been
17 balanced out by the fact that, uh, we, we've kinda
18 stabilized the living situation, and that's at a real
19 reasonable cost in my judgement. So, it all works
20 out. All works out. (Pause) You ought to get those 21 1099's kinda turned around sometime pretty soon top. You
22 coming up on your filing period, and you may as well go
23 ahead and file on April 15th. Don't draw no attention by 24 asking for an extension. You got about a month to get 25 that done. And you really want to show up, you want to

1 show up in 2003, so when you show up in 2004, and you
2 pop up there with forty or fifty or sixty thousand
3 dollars in revenue. And they say, well, where's she
4 been? You just don't want to do that.

5 FARRINGTON: Well, I need to, I need to, to 6 establish who is going to do that first.

7 HILL: Well, your, your, your deal for 2003 is
8 pretty straight forward, so you can just go to an H&R
9 BLOCK, or a tax service, or anybody. I mean, you
10 know, you don't have a real complicated deal in 2003.

11 FARRINGTON: I'm doing 2004 taxes.

12 HILL: No, you're doing 200-, I'm sorry, 2004. You
13 don't have a complicated deal in 2004. Because, you
14 really just, you just really made that money at the end.
15 You didn't, I mean, it wasn't, really, not complicated.
16 It's just all, it's just consulting fees. It's just, it's 17 just income.

18 FARRINGTON: Mmm-hmm.

19 HILL: You gonna have to pay a little tax. Maybe.
20 Maybe. Probably not. You do an earned income
21 tax credit, you should be okay.

22 FARRINGTON: Mmm-hmm.

23 HILL: See, you started that in October, you started
24 in October. So, that was about. Yeah. You, you
25 haven't, you probably make, probably made 20, less than

1 20,000 dollars in 2004.
2 FARRINGTON: Mmm-hmm.
3 HILL: Now, 2005 is gonna be different. But, you
4 need to get that done, and you need to get it done by
5 April 15th, so you will not attract any attention.
6 You are not an audit candidate, but you just don't 7 want anybody later on, three, four, or five years from 8 now, when you have some productive years, and all of a
9 sudden they start looking where you were way back
10 there. So, go on and do what you got to do. Get 11 those 1099's done this week.
